

Executive Summary :

Based on the coffee shop sales dashboard, the business generated $698.81K in total revenue across 149.12K transactions from January to June. Performance shows clear operational peaks during the morning hours, consistent month-over-month growth, and a strong preference for standard/regular product sizes.

Key Insights & Analysis

1. Revenue & Sales Performance Trajectory :

- Consistently Growing Trend: Sales hit their lowest point in February ($76K) but recovered rapidly. Revenue peaked in May at $157K and sustained a high level into June ($156K).
- Strong First Half Finish: June revenue represents more than double the performance seen in February, showcasing highly successful scaling or strong seasonal adaptation.

2. Operational Peaks & Hourly Traffic :

- The Morning Rush: Transactions and revenue skyrocket between 7:00 AM and 10:00 AM, with the absolute peak occurring at 10:00 AM ($89K).
- Mid-Day Stabilization: Traffic drops significantly at noon ($40K) and plateaus at a stable baseline of roughly $40K–$42K hourly until 4:00 PM (16:00).
- Evening Wind-Down: Sales steadily drop after 5:00 PM, hitting an operational low of $3K by 8:00 PM (20:00).

3. Product Mix & Size Preferences :

- Size Dominance: "Regular" sized products drive the highest revenue share at 34.05% ($237.96K), closely followed by "Large" at 30.72% ($214.69K). "Small" items make up 28.59%.
- Volume Drivers: Coffee-based drinks dominate volume. Brewed Coffee, Gourmet Brewed Coffee, and Barista Espresso are the clear top-sellers, moving 25K–26K units each.
- Revenue Drivers: While volume belongs to basic brews, Jamaican Coffee River is identified as the single Top Product overall, generating $38,781.15.

Strategic Recommendations

- Optimize Morning Staffing: Ensure maximum labor allocation and fast-service lines are active between 7:30 AM and 10:30 AM to capture the peak revenue window without causing drop-offs due to wait times.
 - Introduce Afternoon Bundles: Create targeted promotions (e.g., pastry + beverage combos) between 12:00 PM and 3:00 PM to lift the stagnant mid-day revenue floor.
 - Review Evening Viability: Given that revenue drops to just $3K by 8:00 PM, consider adjusting store closing hours earlier to save on utility and labor costs.
 - Upsell Strategy: Since "Regular" sizes are the most popular, train staff to pitch size upgrades to "Large" for high-volume items like Brewed Coffee.
